

Mars -13,85NB, 174,2OL

for wind band

Ruud Roelofsen

Flute 1

Program note

Mars -13,85NB, 174,2OL are the coordinates of a crater on the red planet named after the Dutch city of Zutphen. The piece is not so much an attempt in telling the story of the creation of this crater on Mars, yet it presents a sound ecology inspired by recordings made by NASA's Perseverance Mars Rover combined with the growing tension of the cataclysmic event that forms a galactic impact crater.

Performance Instructions

Flutes only

The notation for 'Flutes only' consists of a single staff with four measures. Measure 1 shows a square box with a dot inside, a diamond on the line, and an arrow pointing up from the diamond. Measure 2 is labeled 'whistle tone' and has a diamond on the line. Measure 3 has an empty square box. Measure 4 has a square box with a dot inside. Below the staff are the numbers 1, 2, 3, and 4 corresponding to the measures.

1. Jet whistle
2. Whistle tone
3. Normal playing position
4. Closed mouthpiece with lips

All winds

The notation for 'All winds' consists of a single staff with three measures. Measure 1 has a square box with a dot inside. Measure 2 has a square box with a dot inside, followed by four notes with dots below them, all under a slur. Measure 3 has an 'x' symbol. Below the staff are the numbers 1, 2, and 3 corresponding to the measures.

Ruud Roelofsen

Trumpet in Bb 2, 3

Program note

Mars -13,85NB, 174,2OL are the coordinates of a crater on the red planet named after the Dutch city of Zutphen. The piece is not so much an attempt in telling the story of the creation of this crater on Mars, yet it presents a sound ecology inspired by recordings made by NASA's Perseverance Mars Rover combined with the growing tension of the cataclysmic event that forms a galactic impact crater.

Performance Instructions

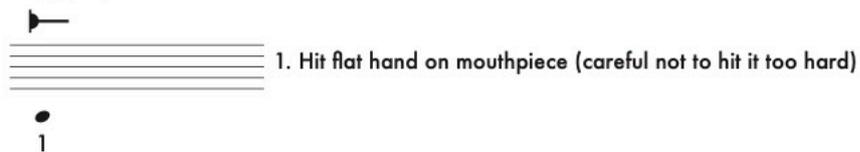

All winds

The notation consists of a five-line staff. From left to right: a square symbol on the first line, a solid black square on the second line, a group of four notes on the third line (each with a dot below it) beamed together and underlined, and an 'x' symbol on the fifth line. Below the staff, there are three numbered markers: '1' with a horizontal line extending to the right, '2' with a horizontal line extending to the right, and '3' with a horizontal line extending to the right. A curved line connects the '2' and '3' markers, positioned under the beamed notes.
